

13. Religious Quotation

Objectives

Learn about religion by learning and quoting a verse from scriptures of a religion.

Develop an interest and curiosity about religious text, words, and verses.

Responsibilities

Prior to the meeting, choose a quotation from religious scriptures. Research its meaning by asking parents, elders, or someone else.

For Sikhs a “Gurbani” quotation is most appropriate.

At the Meeting

Read the quotation, and briefly explain its meaning;

then discuss why you chose that specific quotation and what special meaning it holds for you.
